

“Two girls were away from home playing near a clump of lauhala trees. They saw a deadly tidal wave coming, ran into the trees, and held tightly with their arms around the tree trunks.

“The first gigantic wave washed entirely over them, but they held their breath and clung with all their might until the water receded and their heads were again above the water.

“We, too, are faced with powerful, destructive forces unleashed by the adversary. Waves of sin, wickedness, immorality, degradation, tyranny, deceitfulness, conspiracy, and dishonesty threaten all of us. They come with great power and speed and will destroy us if we are not watchful.”
