

1. There is a _____ to every _____ (Ecclesiastes 3:1).
2. A wise _____ discerneth _____ (Ecclesiastes 8:5).
3. Thou shalt not _____ away thy _____ (D&C 60:13).
4. They must be _____ of their _____ ... which were done by the _____ in their days of _____ (1 Nephi 15:32).

"Time is all the capital stock there is on the earth; ... if properly used, it brings that which will add to your comfort, convenience, and satisfaction. Let us consider this, and no longer sit with hands folded, wasting time" -Brigham Young

1. There is a _____ to every _____ (Ecclesiastes 3:1).
2. A wise _____ discerneth _____ (Ecclesiastes 8:5).
3. Thou shalt not _____ away thy _____ (D&C 60:13).
4. They must be _____ of their _____ ... which were done by the _____ in their days of _____ (1 Nephi 15:32).

"Time is all the capital stock there is on the earth; ... if properly used, it brings that which will add to your comfort, convenience, and satisfaction. Let us consider this, and no longer sit with hands folded, wasting time" -Brigham Young

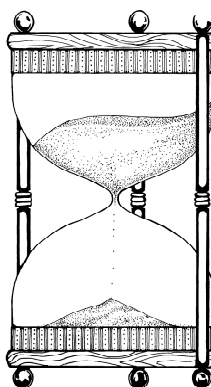

"Our priorities are most visible in how we use our time. Someone has said, "Three things never come back—the spent arrow, the spoken word, and the lost opportunity." We cannot recycle or save the time allotted to us each day. With time, we have only one opportunity for choice, and then it is gone forever." -Dallin

"Our priorities are most visible in how we use our time. Someone has said, "Three things never come back—the spent arrow, the spoken word, and the lost opportunity." We cannot recycle or save the time allotted to us each day. With time, we have only one opportunity for choice, and then it is gone forever." -Dallin

"Our priorities are most visible in how we use our time. Someone has said, "Three things never come back—the spent arrow, the spoken word, and the lost opportunity." We cannot recycle or save the time allotted to us each day. With time, we have only one opportunity for choice, and then it is gone forever." -Dallin

"Our priorities are most visible in how we use our time. Someone has said, "Three things never come back—the spent arrow, the spoken word, and the lost opportunity." We cannot recycle or save the time allotted to us each day. With time, we have only one opportunity for choice, and then it is gone forever." -Dallin