

NAME:

ALMA 21

Ammon and his brothers have just arrived on their missions amongst the Lamanites. They separate and go to different areas. In your opinion (it doesn't say in the scriptures), how did they know which city each one of them should go to?

In verse one, we read that Aaron headed towards what city? _____

Which groups of people had created that city? _____

Why were the hearts of the second and third groups of people so much harder than that of the Lamanites?

Define what it meant to be part of "the order of the Nehors? (look up the cross reference associated with Alma 21:4)

In verse 5, how is this response similar to what Joseph Smith received?

One of Satan's most powerful lies is that the outward appearance of "spirituality" means that a person is close to God. Why is this a lie?

What does this have to do with verse 6?

What does this have to do with picking your future wife or husband?

What was Aaron's response to the Amalekites' argument? (see vss. 7-9)

After leaving Jerusalem, Aaron went to Ani-Anti. Who did he find preaching there?

In your opinion, how many people believed them? (vs. 11) _____

After preaching at Ani-Anti, where did Aaron and his brothers go? _____

What happened? (see vs. 12-13)

Going back to the very first question and also looking now at vs 16, how did these missionaries know where to preach, when and what to preach? _____

After delivering his brothers from prison in Middoni, where did Ammon and Lamoni go? _____

What did Lamoni busy himself with every day after that (instead of killing his shepherds like he used to)?

What did Ammon get up every morning to do? (see vs. 23)
