

"Agency is the power to think, choose, and act for ourselves. It comes with endless opportunities, accompanied by responsibility and consequences... Using this gift of agency wisely is critical today because never in the world's history have God's children been so blessed or so blatantly confronted with so many choices."

Sharon G. Larsen "Agency--A Blessing and a Burden" Ensign Nov 1999

"Agency is the power to think, choose, and act for ourselves. It comes with endless opportunities, accompanied by responsibility and consequences... Using this gift of agency wisely is critical today because never in the world's history have God's children been so blessed or so blatantly confronted with so many choices."

Sharon G. Larsen "Agency--A Blessing and a Burden" Ensign Nov 1999

