

Integrating Duty to God in Seminary

The new Duty to God booklet includes a section where Young Men are invited to share what they've learned with a group. I would like to help you earn your Duty to God award by letting you share what you're learning for Duty to God during our Seminary devotionals. Review the list of the doctrinal topics you studied as a deacon [or teacher]. Working with your advisor or Young Men's Leader, choose four or more additional topics you would like to learn about and teach, and write your choices in your Duty to God Book.

For each topic you study, create a simple outline. It could include:

- (1) a definition of the topic,
- (2) teachings and examples from the scriptures and your own life, and
- (3) your thoughts and feelings about why this topic is important.

You may use the scriptures (including the Topical Guide [and Scripture Mastery Scriptures]), True to the Faith, Preach My Gospel, and the words of latter-day prophets to learn about these topics.

To fulfill your Act requirement, teach your chosen topic to our Seminary class during devotional, and report back to your Young Men's leader about your experience. Here is the list of Spiritual Strength Doctrinal Topics they from which you should choose:

The Godhead
The Plan of Salvation
The Atonement of Jesus Christ
Prophets
The Apostasy and the Restoration of the Gospel
The Restoration of the Priesthood
The Priesthood and Priesthood Keys
Service
Covenants and Ordinances
Faith
Repentance

Baptism
The Gift of the Holy Ghost
Prayer and Personal Revelation
Agency
Temples
Eternal Families and Family
History Work
The Law of Chastity
The Word of Wisdom
Tithing

When you've given your devotional lesson, fill out tear a section at the bottom of this page, ask your teacher to sign it, and give it to your parent or Young Men's leader.
