

General Young Women Meeting

Speakers included the Young Women general presidency and a member of the First Presidency. This broadcast was held on March 25, 2006, at the Conference Center.

Susan W. Tanner, Young Women General President “I Am the Light Which Ye Shall Hold Up”

1. As a primary girl, Sister Tanner cross-stitched this phrase:

2. Doctrine & Covenants 115:5 says to “arise and shine forth, that thy light may be a standard for the nations.” Sister Tanner adds we should also be a standard for whom?

3. Fill in the blanks with Sister Tanner’s words: “Homes are also private places, so unfortunately, we often let down. In our homes and with our families we sometimes become our _____ selves with the people who matter the _____ in our lives.”

4. List some ways Sister Tanner tells us we can shine on in our homes:

Julie B. Beck, First Counselor in the Young Women General Presidency “You Have a Noble Birthright”

1. Fill in the blanks with Sister Beck’s words: “You have light because you are literally spirit daughters of Deity, ‘offspring of exalted _____’ with a divine nature and an eternal destiny. You received your first _____ in the world of spirits from your heavenly parents. You have been sent to earth to _____ yourselves.”

2. Sister Beck says she is glad she received her patriarchal blessing before she was “too heavily influenced by the confusing and incorrect messages of the world.” What comforting assurances did she come away with? _____

_____. She also began to think more in terms of _____ than _____.

3. Sister Beck took confidence from her patriarchal blessing and succeeded in what even though her high school counselor told her she would not do well in it? _____

Elaine S. Dalton, Second Counselor in the Young Women General Presidency
“It Shows in Your Face”

1. Fill in the missing words from the poem that Sister Dalton recites:

You don't have to tell how you live each day;

You don't have to tell if you _____ or play;

A tried and true barometer stands in its place—

You don't have to tell, it will show in your _____

If you live _____ and His infinite grace—

You won't have to tell, it will show in your face.

2. Name something that “arise and shine forth” calls you to. _____

3. What did Mary Goble’s father do when she finally reached the shelf he built to help straighten her injured legs? _____

President James E. Faust, Second Counselor in the First Presidency
“Your Light—A Standard to All Nations”

1. After relating the story about Mary Elizabeth and Caroline Rollins saving the printed revelations from a mob, President Faust tells how you can stand apart from evil. What does he say you should do? _____

2. Which of Joan of Arc’s traits does President Faust say will help us maintain church standards? _____

3. Name two things 13-year-old Vicki did to change Brother Hankins’ life forever. _____

4. In the Savior’s parable about the ten virgins, why didn’t the five wise virgins share their oil with the foolish ones? Were they being selfish? _____

5. President Faust quotes Spencer W. Kimball about the oil we use to fill our spiritual preparedness lamps, drop by drop in our daily living. List them:
