

Motherhood - Our Divine Nature

"We have made covenants. We made them before we accepted our position here on earth. We committed ourselves to our Heavenly Father, that if he would send us to the earth and give us bodies and give to us the priceless opportunities that earth life afforded, we would keep our lives clean and would marry in the holy temple and would rear a family and teach them righteousness. This was a solemn oath, a solemn promise."

"Do not make the mistake of being drawn off into secondary tasks which will cause the neglect of your eternal assignments such as giving birth to and rearing the spirit children of our Father in Heaven." President Spencer W. Kimball

The Family

A Proclamation to the World

*The First Presidency and Council of the Twelve Apostles
of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints*

By divine design, fathers are to preside over their families in love and righteousness and are responsible to provide the necessities of life and protection for their families. Mothers are primarily responsible for the nurture of their children. In these sacred responsibilities, fathers and mothers are obligated to help one another as equal partners.

Personal Progress Help:

Divine Nature #6: Develop your divine qualities. Read Matthew 5:9, John 15:12, Galatians 5:22–23, Colossians 3:12–17, 1 John 4:21, and Moroni 7:44–48. Memorize your favorite verse from one of these passages. Identify the divine qualities mentioned in all these scriptures. Select one quality, and for two weeks strive to make it a part of your Record your progress and experiences in your journal.

Motherhood - Our Divine Nature

"We have made covenants. We made them before we accepted our position here on earth. We committed ourselves to our Heavenly Father, that if he would send us to the earth and give us bodies and give to us the priceless opportunities that earth life afforded, we would keep our lives clean and would marry in the holy temple and would rear a family and teach them righteousness. This was a solemn oath, a solemn promise."

"Do not make the mistake of being drawn off into secondary tasks which will cause the neglect of your eternal assignments such as giving birth to and rearing the spirit children of our Father in Heaven." President Spencer W. Kimball

The Family

A Proclamation to the World

*The First Presidency and Council of the Twelve Apostles
of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints*

By divine design, fathers are to preside over their families in love and righteousness and are responsible to provide the necessities of life and protection for their families. Mothers are primarily responsible for the nurture of their children. In these sacred responsibilities, fathers and mothers are obligated to help one another as equal partners.

Personal Progress Help:

Divine Nature #6: Develop your divine qualities. Read Matthew 5:9, John 15:12, Galatians 5:22–23, Colossians 3:12–17, 1 John 4:21, and Moroni 7:44–48. Memorize your favorite verse from one of these passages. Identify the divine qualities mentioned in all these scriptures. Select one quality, and for two weeks strive to make it a part of your Record your progress and experiences in your journal.