

We are each of us in this world an angel with only one wing. In order to fly we must embrace each other.

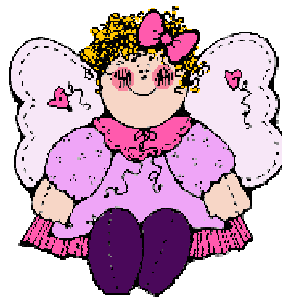

We are each of us in this world an angel with only one wing. In order to fly we must embrace each other.

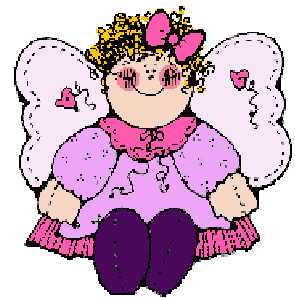

We are each of us in this world an angel with only one wing. In order to fly we must embrace each other.

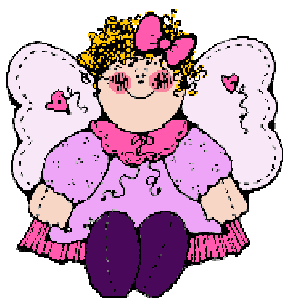

We are each of us in this world an angel with only one wing. In order to fly we must embrace each other.

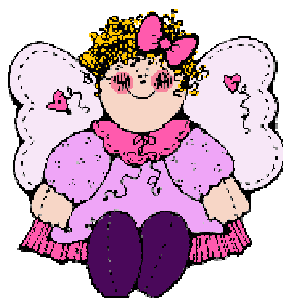

We are each of us in this world an angel with only one wing. In order to fly we must embrace each other.

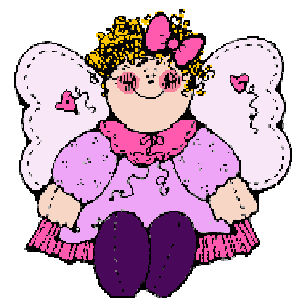

We are each of us in this world an angel with only one wing. In order to fly we must embrace each other.

We are each of us in this world an angel with only one wing. In order to fly we must embrace each other.

We are each of us in this world an angel with only one wing. In order to fly we must embrace each other.

We are each of us in this world an angel with only one wing. In order to fly we must embrace each other.