

Prepare to Teach Others

“Everyday we represent not only ourselves but our families, our Church, and the Lord.”

1. Develop Confidence

“We can take advantage of natural ways to open gospel discussions. The members of one family consider it fun to look each day for ways to tell their friends about the gospel. They just watch for natural opportunities. By simply keeping their eyes, ears, and hearts open, they are able to teach their friends about the gospel without forcing anything.” George D. Durrant

2. Learn other Languages

The commandment to carry the gospel to all the world (see D&C 90:11) implies that we need to learn the languages of the people who have not heard the gospel.

3. Develop Talents

“Perhaps you have something to give that is as simple as love, or dedication, or hard work, or anything else that may be missing in someone’s life. Try it. Share it. You’ll never know what it may do for another” H. Burke Peterson

4. Cultivate Good Manners

“Just as surely as [a person] walks, his manner, his attitude, his clothing, his complete self will be concrete evidence of what he is in his soul. He cannot conceal himself. Teach him, then, that these things reveal his spirit and show what he really is” S. Dilworth Young

5. Develop a Strong Testimony
