

The quality of our lives is determined by what we do in our free time. The purpose of our life is not just to live long, but to live well. Time is a gift and we should use it wisely and consider it a treasure.

The quality of our lives is determined by what we do in our free time. The purpose of our life is not just to live long, but to live well. Time is a gift and we should use it wisely and consider it a treasure.