

Religious Square Knot Patch

As Cub Scout leaders we've been asked to incorporate the Faith In God program with our scout activities. The first thing we must do to accomplish this is to familiarize our scouts and their parents with the Faith In God guide books and how they correlate with the scouting program.

A cub may earn the Religious Square Knot Patch by meeting the seven requirements noted in the Faith in God for Boys guidebook (those marked with a square know icon) before the age eleven. Below is a list of those activities which correlate with both scouting and Faith In God.

We ask that the boys please bring their Faith In God guidebooks along with their scout books each week to Scouts. Thank you for your support of this new and important emphasis. Feel free to contact your Wolf Den Leaders With questions.

These Cub Scout Requirements/Electives may also fill requirements in the Faith In God booklet. Therefore, when you accomplish one, you are also accomplishing the other.
