

Temple Hanger

*This temple hanger was made especially for you,
For your temple dress someday, white and new.*

*As you see this hanger in your closet each day,
Remember to be morally clean in every way.*

*Prepare now for the blessings the temple brings.
Choose what is right, strive for eternal things.*

*The most important decision you'll ever make
Is the one you will choose for your eternal mate.*

*Date young men that will respect your virtue
And to their priesthood covenants be true.*

*Our Father in Heaven is watching over you
Set high standards and worthy goals pursue.*

*He will help you to always choose what is right,
If you seek His protection each day and night.*

*Your life will be blessed as you follow the Lord,
So keep His commandments and live His word.*

*Live your life so you can go to the temple,
It's the Lord's House and He wants you to enter.*
