

“...I did liken all scriptures unto [me], that it might be for [my] profit and learning.”

1 Nephi 19:23

PRESENT questions

How might I teach this gospel principle to a non-member? A friend? A family member?
 What characteristics of the person in this scripture story would I like to develop?
 How can this passage help me strengthen my relationship with family, friends, or Jesus Christ?
 Can I use this passage to help me in my church service? Member missionary work? Education?
 This passage shows a spiritual gift in action. Which spiritual gifts will I seek?
 How can this passage help me overcome a trial in my life?
 How can I use this passage to strengthen my ability to resist temptation?
 How will following this commandment help me today?
 How might ignoring the lesson in this passage affect me today at school? At home?
 What does this passage teach me about the importance of spiritual worthiness?
 What does this passage mean to me?
 What can I change or improve in my life?
 What am I feeling?

PAST questions

Have I had an experience with this principle? What did I learn?
 How did I feel when I heard/learned this truth?

FUTURE questions

How can I use this scripture to help me achieve my goal of temple marriage?
 How will I teach this principle on my mission? To my future children? To a future Sunday school class?
 How can this passage help me be honest at my future employment?
 Does this passage warn me of a temptation I may face in the future? How will I respond when that temptation occurs?
 Does this passage warn me of a trial I may face in the future? How can I use this scripture to help me endure through difficult times?
 How will following this commandment now help me tomorrow? Next year? Eternally?
 How might ignoring the lesson in this passage affect me tomorrow? Next year? At school? At my future employment? Could my disobedience affect a future family relationship?