

"God...has a pencil with an eraser on it and he has promised us that he will use it if we will repent and change our ways...He has said that if we would forsake our evil and thoroughly make up our minds against it, then he would wash it out of his mind and just forget the whole thing. Of course, he expects that we will wash it out of our minds also."

~Sterling W. Sill

"God...has a pencil with an eraser on it and he has promised us that he will use it if we will repent and change our ways...He has said that if we would forsake our evil and thoroughly make up our minds against it, then he would wash it out of his mind and just forget the whole thing. Of course, he expects that we will wash it out of our minds also."

~Sterling W. Sill

"God...has a pencil with an eraser on it and he has promised us that he will use it if we will repent and change our ways...He has said that if we would forsake our evil and thoroughly make up our minds against it, then he would wash it out of his mind and just forget the whole thing. Of course, he expects that we will wash it out of our minds also."

~Sterling W. Sill