

November Sharing Time 2012

Week 4: "I can prepare now to serve a full-time mission."

Identify the doctrine: I loved what they listed in the outline. I have attached the scripture to make it a little easier.

Encourage Understanding: Hang up the graphics on the board. (See attached) Take the time to teach each concept after you discuss it. Remember to also hang up a picture of the Savior from the gospel art picture kit.

Activity:

1. After they have learned all the things they need a testimony of, have them play "I'm going on a mission." Model this after "I'm going on a trip" game. Bring one child to the front of the room. Have them say "I'm going on a mission... and I'll need a testimony of _____." The next child to come up says "I'm going on a mission.. and I'll need a testimony of (whatever the first person said , and _____." Continue bringing children up as time permits. Each child will get to add something to the long list of things they will need a testimony of. The group can help each child remember. Take time to talk about each item that is listed by a child.

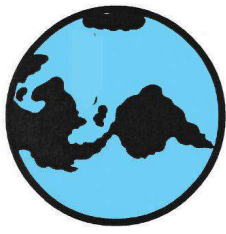

Repeat this activity if needed on "I'm going to share my testimony with _____."

2. Use our "What is a Testimony packet." There is a great activity in it where each child gets a hand and can pick different tokens to go on each finger. Each token is something that they have a testimony of. They can then bear their testimony by looking at their hand. Have a few minutes where children can come up, look at their hand, and bear their testimony to the rest of the primary. (This can turn out to be an amazing experience) This packet will be marked down to only $1.50 in the month of November.

Hand out missionary finder cards for them to hand out to friends and family.
