

November Sharing Time 2012

Week 1: "I can be a missionary by serving others."

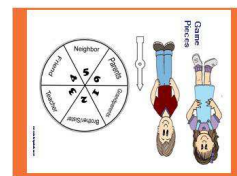

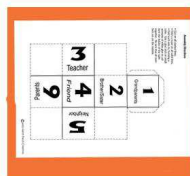

Encourage Understanding

Have the children read out loud Matthew 25:40. (see attached) Follow the instructions listed in the "2012 Sharing Time Outline." Call up two children at a time. Let them pick one of the "Charades" cards from a bowl. (See Attached) Let the rest of the children guess what act of service they are performing. Take the time to reiterate all the different people they could serve by doing this act.

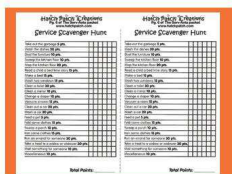

Encourage Application

I really liked the idea in the outline for this game. I just tweaked it a little. Make your own large board that can go all over the room using 6 different colors of cardstock. Color the game "Key" to match the colors you have. I always end up not having a certain color so I thought it would be best to let everyone pick their own. Play the game as listed in the outline. You can either use the spinner enclosed or because I can never find a brad when needed, I attached a die as well.

Additional Ideas

Challenge the children to serve others during the next week. Hand out a Service Scavenger Hunt sheet. (See enclosed) Make sure to explain about the different people they can serve and how it can be a form of missionary work. Let the children know that anyone who obtains a certain number of points will get a treat next week. (I said 100)
