

Young Women Personal Progress Report

Date: _____

Dear _____,

We are so grateful to have the opportunity to serve your daughter in the Young Women's program. As she participates in Personal Progress she joins with thousands of other young women who are striving to come unto Christ and "stand as a witness of God at all times and in all things and in all places" (Mosiah 18:9)

Here is an updated list of what _____ has accomplished in Personal Progress so far:

Value	Required Experience	Required Experience	Required Experience	Elective Experience	Elective Experience	Elective Experience	10 hour PROJECT
Faith
Divine Nature
Individual Worth
Knowledge
Choice & Accountability
Good Works
Integrity
Virtue
Honor Bee

Your daughter should work at her own pace but should try to space her progress so that the program will last throughout her time in Young Women's. She may work on the values in any order and/or work together on projects with other young women. Your daughter may receive credit toward her Personal Progress Recognition Award for the good things she is doing at home, church, school, seminary and in the community which will fulfill the requirements of the Personal Progress program with prior approval of parents or her leaders.

Mothers and other adult women may work on Personal Progress and earn their medallions or the new Honor Bee award as well. After completion of the Personal Progress requirements, an Honor Bee charm may be earned by reading the Book of Mormon and completing 40 hours of service.

If you have any questions or need any assistance, please do not hesitate to contact any of the Young Women leaders.
